

From Bust to Boom: New Chances for the Lisbon Strategy
The crisis as a unique window of opportunity

09:30 Introduction

- LCF-President - Andreas Pyka (University of Bremen, Germany)
The challenges for the Lisbon Agenda: Schumpeterian thinking tickled by Keynes
- APDC President - Diogo Vasconcelos (Portugal)
ICT Infrastructure enabling Entrepreneurship
- Rui Vilar - Chairman, Gulbenkian Foundation

10:00 - Part I: Shaping new Structures for a prosperous European Future

- Pier-Paolo Saviotti - INRA-GAEL, Université Pierre Mendès-France, Grenoble, France
Crises, Co-evolution and Economic Development
 - Armin Reller - University of Augsburg, Germany
Innovative technologies and strategic resources
 - Thomas Hamacher - IPP Max Planck Institute for Plasmaphysics, Munich, Germany
New Strategies for Resources and Energy
- Moderator: Pedro Guerreiro - Jornal de Negócios

11:20 - Coffee Break

12:00 - Part II: Shaping new Structures for a prosperous European Future

- Gordon Lishman - International Federation on Ageing Pressure from Aging Societies, UK
 - Roy Thurik - Erasmus University, Rotterdam, The Netherlands
Entrepreneurship and the cycle: a way out of the bust?
 - Vítor Bento - SIBS, Portugal
Bottlenecks to growth
- Moderator: Peter Wise - FT

13:00 Lunch Break

14:00 Future-oriented Policy designs: Part I

- Alfred Kleinknecht - TU Delft, The Netherlands
Flexible labour markets: good for jobs, bad for innovation?
 - Tibor Palankai - Corvinus University of Budapest, Hungary
Lisbon and Knowledge-based society
- Moderator: Ákos Kengyel - Corvinus University of Budapest

15:00 Future-oriented Policy designs: Part II

- Dimitri Zenghelis - London School of Economics, UK
The case for a 'green' stimulus
 - Ryszard Wilczynski - Warsaw University of Finance and Management, Poland
Post - crisis reforms of the international financial system; the role of Europe
 - Carlos Costa - European Investment Bank, Luxembourg
Financial Structures supporting the Design of new Structures
- Moderator: Michael Lake - former journalist of the Guardian and EU ambassador to Turkey and Budapest

16:00 Conclusions & Debate

- LCF-General Secretary - Horst Hanusch (University of Augsburg, Germany)
Keeping the economy in the Neo-Schumpeterian corridor

17:00 Farewell of the Conference

